

Summer Housing Resources: Boston

Office of Career Development

Vassar College

Averages: (per month)

Housing:

$1000 USD

Food:

$300 USD

(~$75/week)

Transportation

$59 USD

(Public)

The following is a list of summer housing resources students pursuing internships in Boston. See the Career Brief Summer Housing Resources for an additional list of general summer housing resources.

Here are some links that provide summer housing for students pursuing internships in the Boston area:

http://ifc.mit.edu/summer_housing.php

The MIT housing site provides listings for the various fraternity and sorority houses located on and around the campus. Keep in mind that this site provides listings and contact information, not the housing itself. Contact information is provided for each property and the amenities, rooms, and locations vary for each.

Rates start: $450 per month

<http://brown.dailyjolt.com/housing/>

A listing of summer sublets in and around the Boston area. Also, there are listings of individuals who are seeking roommates, a great way to eliminate the cost of potential internships. Again, amenities, rooms, and locations vary – but there are quite a few to consider!

Also, be sure to keep in mind the many services that are generally available for finding short-term accommodations in the Boston area. Some of the websites below might be helpful:

<http://www.bostonapartments.com>

<http://www.justrentals.com>

<http://www.roommateconnection.com>

<http://www.rent.com>

Transportation Resource:

<http://www.mbtta.com>

Boston's public transportation website provides access to schedules, fares, and other useful information. Be sure to look into the Charlie card – a reusable stored value card that could be helpful.